Restoration of Voting Rights - General Information

Have you been convicted of a felony?

- If you have been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude or are on probation (parole) for the same crime, you are not eligible to register to vote.
- If you are no longer serving a sentence and have been unconditionally discharged from the supervision of the Department of Corrections, you can register in Alaska by completing a Voter Registration Application.

Information needed when you register to vote after being unconditionally discharged from your felony conviction.

The Division of Elections must receive proof of your unconditional discharge from the supervising entity. If you do not have a letter or discharge papers, please contact your probation or parole office to obtain one and submit it with your Voter Registration Application.

Contact the Department of Corrections

Visit the Department of Corrections, Division of Probation and Parole website for contact information for your area.
